A fun day

Yesterday we went to the beach and we played in the ocean.

Then we changed back into our normal clothes.

We walked. Next we went to Quickly and got some boba tea. It is sweet milk with big tapioca at the bottom. I picked coconut milk with tapioca at the bottom. Daddy liked the coconut one a lot. After that we went to a foot massaging ^{place}. Mom and Dad got a foot massage. We sat in the waiting room and read some books. Then we walked home. We ate a sandwich and some mangos and had fun.
