On Monday

On Monday we are going to go to a ballet class because Mom signed us up for it.

We will end it on Friday. There will be a show on Friday in the ballet school and we will be in it.

We will get to have makeup on and we will have to wear camisoles with stockings. On the day of the show we will have to wear ponytails. The ballet teachers will put makeup on for us. You are also allowed to wear leotards with stockings. Mommy and Paddy will both come to watch. We will have a lot of fun on Monday.
