Play date

Yesterday I went to Ciara's house for a playdate. She had millions of toys. Daddy and Mommy went out for a movie. We played with her toys and put on costumes that went with high heels. Then Ciara's Mom took us to the park and we looked for magic stones. Next we went back to Ciara's house and ate dinner. For dinner there was pizza and orange soda. For dessert there were chocolate covered madeleines. We had fun.
