Yesterday

Yesterday we had a mini triathlon with swimming, running, and biking. I liked swimming the best. Then we dropped off some things to the Goodwill Store. Then we went to the May-Wah market. We each got to pick out two fruits of our choice each. I got an asian pear and some peaches. After that we went back home and ate dinner. Mommy made tofu rolls and beans. I ate a peach for dessert. Then we cuddled in bed. We read some books. We had fun.
