Cutie pie

Once there was a little baby who was getting annoyed with all the people saying 'cutie pie'. He had an idea and he woke up while every one was sleeping. He packed two gallons of water, one potato, and 20 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.

He grabbed a sleeping bag. Then he brought his cat. He sat on his little trike and off he rode. He suddenly felt a little lighter. He was flying over the city. Then he went right back to land and he said, "wait a minute. What are those people saying? Oh no here we go again!"
