Bahaar Mami

Bahaar mami is my aunt. She has a really big house and a big box full of toys for us. She has books with mazes and dot to dots. Sometimes she takes us to the toy shop close to her house. She buys us toys and she plays with us a lot. She makes really good biryani. I like her chicken biryani. She sometimes tells us stories. She has a haunted guest room but it is pretty cool. She once took us out for a whole day at Fisherman's Wharf. I love her.
