My Grandmother

My Grandmother lives in India. She lives in the Orient Building. We call her Dadi. Her real name is Hamida Patel. She bought me a Hannah Montana painting kit and a Hannah Montana coloring book. She is my grandmother on my dad's side. She has a really pretty house and she cooks really good food for us. Next summer we might go to India just by our selves - just me and my sister Anya. Dadi cooks really good chole. She makes little bags with peanuts and raisans and gives them to us. We love her.
