My Grandmother

My Grandmother lives in India. She lives in the the great eastern royal. She wears a sari all the time. She made up stories and they are called tetunia stories. These are about a naughty little girl named Tetunia and she is friends with two good girls named Lyla and Anya.

She cooks really good food. She has a really cool shower where you have to put water into buckets and them on yourself. She bought a really big rubber ducky and we used to go inside. She may still have it. I love her.
